SMC's Board of Trustees welcomed two new senior officers and four new members. Esteemed business leader Kevin Nagle (left) begins a two-year term as board chairperson, as does finance executive Kevin "Casey" Eichler (right), who will serve as board secretary. New members include Lasallian educator Brother Gustavo Ramirez Barba FSC, EdD, MA '94, business executives Kevin Flynn '86 and Mark Madgett '83, and attorney Joseph Motta '84.

Gaels Coming Home for Reunion

Alumni are heading back to campus to see old friends and relive college days at the Alumni Reunion this weekend, July 14-16. They will check out what's new—and reassuringly the same—around campus as they reconnect with classmates at the townhouse party, family BBQ, and class dinners on the Chapel Lawn. Special honored classes end in "2" or "7" plus the class of 2016.

Did You Know?

The Cal Grant is safe! Jerry Brown signed a $182 billion state budget for 2017-18, which fully funded the Cal Grant for the private, nonprofit sector. Once again the Cal Grant was threatened with an 11 percent cut, but successful advocacy—including by members of the Saint Mary's community—provided another one-year reprieve. The Cal Grant maximum will remain at $9,084 (there has been no increase since 2000).

Communicating the Power of Dance

Antoine Hunter LEAP '09, award-winning dancer, director, choreographer, and graduate of the LEAP (Liberal Education for Arts Professionals) program, who is deaf, says, "The joy of being a deaf dancer is that it allows me to listen to my spirit more, without any other distraction." Founder of the Bay Area Deaf International Dance Festival, Hunter has performed around the world.

Rheem Boulevard Sinkhole Repair Update

Construction to repair the Moraga sinkhole on Rheem Boulevard begins today. The Rheem Boulevard and Center Street intersection will be closed to traffic during the project—which is expected to conclude mid-October—and detour routes will redirect traffic on Rheem Boulevard back to Glorietta Boulevard, and traffic on Moraga Road toward either Moraga Way or Lafayette. "Saint Mary's community members making the trip between the Rheem and main campus should plan extra time to navigate the construction zone," said Adan Tejada, director of public safety.

Campus Facilities Update

From repairs to the natural gas system campus-wide to upgrades in Claeys North, facility projects are in full swing and on schedule. Read the latest in this update from Director of Project Management Diane Hardy.

Join the #GreenGael

Help advance and pioneer sustainability initiatives here on campus by volunteering to be a Sustainability Ambassador. More than 20 staff members were ambassadors last year and the program needs new volunteers this fall to work on sustainability best practices at work and at home. Interested? Fill out this form. There are also spots to sign up for Green Space, a student-led program that offers ways to make offices and other spaces green.
